HELP OLDER ADULTS STAY CONNECTED

Sponsor a Tech Clinic

Older adults shouldn't have to navigate technology, scams, or digital services alone. At our Mobile Tech Clinics, trained high school and college mentors provide patient, one-on-one technology help at no cost to older adults.

Patient, side-by-side support built on trust, connection, and learning across generations.

THE INTERGENERATIONAL ADVANTAGE

Two Generations. One Impact.

Older adults gain digital confidence, independence, and protection from scams. Student mentors gain leadership, patience, empathy, and real-world communication skills. Your sponsorship creates visible impact across two generations at once. Your sponsorship removes cost as a barrier for older adults while creating meaningful leadership opportunities for young people. Each clinic brings generations together around a practical need—helping older adults navigate technology safely, independently, and with greater confidence.

What Older Adults Experience

Mentor staffing scales to expected attendance - typically up to 10 trained student mentors, with more added for larger turnout.

1. Bring any device
   Phones, tablets, laptops, smartwatches, e-readers, other personal technology they need help navigating.
2. Get matched one-on-one
   A trained high school or college mentor provides patient, side-by-side support.
3. Connect and solve
   Our Wi-Fi hotspots support help with apps, accounts, passwords, photos, email, scams, AI, settings, and more.
4. Leave more confident
   Older adults take home practical guides on scams, AI, online safety, accessibility, and device basics.

"I felt like the world was moving forward without me. Now I can keep up."
